Dear Dr. Brew,

Enclosed please find a list showing money expended for the account of the 1955 Peabody-Harvard-Smithsonian Kalahari Expedition for which I have not been reimbursed.

This list was compiled from the stubs in my check book. I had several envelopes containing receipted bills, and also several envelopes containing cancelled checks, but they cannot be found although we have been searching for them since our freight came back over a month ago. I have one envelope containing checks that were cancelled between April 18 and June 27. This was found in an unexpected place. I am quite sure the others were packed and expect we will find them. When we do I will see that they are turned in to the museum.

In the meantime I would appreciate it if you could repay me the amount shown. I can state that it was all spent for the account of the expedition.

Yours truly,

Laurence K. Marshall
